| | | Expected outcome | Students are expected to gain in-depth knowledge of the subject that would rear an insight to search for clarity and academic veracity of ideas and concepts inextricably related to the foundations of the subject matter. The course creates its own value in being accessible to the students of vernacular medium and provides opportunity to understand and grasp the fundamentals of the subject, conceptual, theoretical and in certain cases in application. The syllabus reflects a topical approach covering a broad spectrum from traditional foundational issues to more contemporary ones. The idea is to ingrain into the mind of learners strong theoretical underpinnings that can probe into topical issues and read plural narratives on the same. The course prepares the mind for research and application providing opportunities to learners to choose either an academic or a non academic professional field. |

| | | Expected outcome | In order to ensure the quality of education imparted to the learners and enhance the standards of curriculum, the university has formed a Subject Committee for the programme in Bengali offered through the distance mode. The Subject Committee is made of subject experts from not only within the university but also from various other universities in the state. The said committee provides the university authority with constructive academic inputs from time to time. Apart from this, the university has constituted the Centre for Internal Quality Assurance (CIQA) in accordance with the provisions of the UGC (ODL) Regulations, 2017 to monitor the effectiveness of the programme. These measures are expected to enhance the accountability of the programme and also to help it meet the professional requirements of the field. Required changes and modifications towards improvement are strictly monitored. |

| | | Expected outcome | In consonance with Tagore's philosophy of overall development of the human mind and inner senses, Rabindra Sangeet is offered and is extremely popular in the Distance Mode of Education. In its uniqueness and originality the subject offers a balanced blend of the theoretical knowledge and practical sessions enriching the minds of the young to be artists. The course material provides printed learning materials and CDs that provides constant support to the learners in refining their singing capacity and absorbing the depths of the knowledge related to songs, lyrics, tune. A rich knowledge of the theoretical background of music and songs fortifies the performance capacity of the young learners and gives them an edge in emerging as learned performers. This provides a professional orientation to the course. |

| | | Expected outcome | Students are expected to gain in-depth knowledge of the subject that would rear an insight to search for clarity and academic veracity of ideas and concepts inextricably related to the foundations of the subject matter. The course creates its own value in being accessible to the students of vernacular medium and provides opportunity to understand and grasp the fundamentals of the subject, conceptual, theoretical and in certain cases in application. The syllabus reflects a topical approach covering a broad spectrum from traditional foundational issues to more contemporary ones. The idea is to ingrain into the mind of learners strong theoretical underpinnings that can probe into topical issues and read plural narratives on the same. The course prepares the mind for research and application providing opportunities to learners to choose either an academic or a non academic professional field. | |
