Shakespeare Reconsidered (To Celebrate Shakespeare's 450th Birth)

Date: 17th to 20th March 2015

Venue: Madhusudan Manch or Jorasanko Thakurbari

The Department of Drama, Rabindra Bharati University proposes to hold a 4-day International Conference on Shakespeare together with a Shakespeare Play Festival in March 2015 to celebrate the 450th anniversary of Shakespeare's Birth. Shakespeare the playwright has been with us for around 430 years, inspiring productions, giving rise to acting and production styles, stimulating intellectual controversy, and becoming an academic powerhouse. He has been performed and studied worldwide and has virtually become the theatrical mascot of some countries like England and Germany. And yet the utility of studying Shakespeare today has been challenged, and even his identity has been questioned.

We are inviting the proposal from the interested theatre groups. Please send your proposal in plain paper along with your following documents.

- i) Synopsis of the Play
- ii) About the group
- iii) About the Director
- iv) List of the team Member
- v) CD / DVD of the Production

Deadlines:
