2. Few seats are reserved in each course for Foreign / NRI students against a higher rate of tuition fees. In case of non-availability of Foreign / NRI students, Indian students may be considered in those seats against the same higher rate of tuition fees. For these seats, application will be invited after the admission of 2nd merit list. Such applications will have to be downloaded from the University website by entering the system generated Application Identification Number (AIN) and the date of birth as entered during online application for admission. Therefore, it is to be noted that only the candidates who have already submitted online application for admission in this session i.e. 2021-22, will get the chance to apply.

Exercise of Option

As per Govt. Rules, the candidates belonging to reserved categories (SC/ST/OBC-A/OBC-B) who have found place in the general merit list on the basis of their merit will also be placed in the merit list for the reserved categories of candidates. It is mandatory for such candidates to exercise their option on whether they would like to be placed in the general merit list or the separate merit list for reserved categories of candidates. Admission would be made as per the option exercised by the candidates. The option once exercised shall not be altered under any circumstances. Option will have to be submitted at the time of confirmation of admission. Details will be notified in due course.

Course Fees

1. Total Course fee of 8 (eight) semesters : Rs. 7860 /- excluding examination fees
2. Course fee to be paid at the time of admission in the 1st semester: Rs. 1665/- excluding examination fees.

Admission procedure.

This is for information of all concerned that as per the resolution adopted by the Admission Board, Faculty of Visual Arts, following admission procedure would be followed for admission to the different UG programmes under the Faculty of Visual Arts in the academic session 2021-2022.

1. In view of the present pandemic, the entire admission process including the admission test would be conducted online.
2. Admission Test would be conducted in 4 (four) phases as noted below:

(a) Phase-I: Portfolio Evaluation [Full marks: 20]

At the time of submission of application for admission, candidates would have to submit a portfolio containing raw, unedited images of his/her 4 best drawings (for admission to all Departments except, the Department of Sculpture and the Department of Graphics-Printmaking) or images of 4 best clay models (for admission to Department of Sculpture) or images of 4 best linocut and/or drawing or water colour (for admission to Department of Graphics-Printmaking) in JPEG/JPG/PNG format electronically as per instructions to be provided on university's admission website. The post-production editing of the image is strictly prohibited. Only the candidates, shortlisted based on their submitted portfolio as stated above, would be admitted to Practical Tests in Phase-II.

(b) Phase-II: Practical Tests [Full marks: 50]

Phase-II of the admission test would consist of Practical Test to ascertain candidate's aptitude to and skill for Visual Arts subjects. In Practical Test, the candidate would be asked to draw on a theme to be mentioned in the question paper (for admission to all Departments except, Department of Sculpture). For admission to Department of Sculpture, the candidate would be asked to create a clay model on a theme to be mentioned in the question paper. On the scheduled date and time of the Test, question papers would be uploaded to the university's examination portal. The candidates, who are allowed to appear for Phase-II of the admission test on the basis of evaluation of their submitted portfolios, would have to download the question papers at the scheduled time on the date of examination. The candidates would be given 3 (three) hours of time on the same day to (a) to draw/create clay model at their places, (b) to convert their drawings/clay model into images (JPEG/JPG/PNG format) or into PDF format and (c) to upload the images/pdf of the all answer scripts to the university's examination portal. On their answer scripts, the candidates would have to write their Application Identification Number (AIN) and serial number of the page on the top of every page. In no case the candidate should write their names on their answer scripts. If any candidate fails to upload the images/pdf of his/her answer scripts within the stipulated 3(three) hours' time on the date of examination, his/her candidature would be treated as cancelled.

(c) Phase-III: Online interview [Full Marks: 20]

Only those candidates who were qualified in Practical in Phase II would appear in Phase III i.e. Online Interview. Interviews will be conducted online through the university's own online examination portal. Each Department would design their interview questions so as to assess the candidate's aptitude and skill as necessary for studying in respective Department.

(d) Academic marks of H.S. or its equivalent- Full Score-10

The candidates obtaining at least 40% marks (out of a total of 20) in Portfolio Evaluation (30% for SC/ST/PWD and 36% for OBC-A&B candidates) would qualify in the Phase-I of Admission Test and would be eligible for the Phase-II of the Admission Test i.e. Practical Test having the same qualifying marks i.e. 40% (30% for SC/ST/PWD and 36% for OBC-A&B candidates) out of a total of 50 in Practical Test. The candidates who qualify in Phase-I and Phase-II of the of the Admission Test would be asked to appear for an interview online in Phase-III. In Phase- III also 40 % (30% for SC/ST/PWD and 36% for OBC-A&B candidates) out of a total of 20 would remain the qualifying marks. The result of the qualified candidates would be published on the University website.

Aggregate of the total score (a + b + c + d = total score) would be counted towards preparation of merit lists which would be subject to verification.
