

RABINDRA BHARATI UNIVERSITY

Action Taken Report

Celebration of the Constitution Day

Date: 26 November 2025

Venue: Emerald Bower Campus, Rabindra Bharati University, Kolkata

Introduction

The Rabindra Bharati University observed the "Constitution Day" on the 26th of November, 2025 at the Emerald Bower Campus of the University to commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India and also to promote constitutional values among the academic community. All the stakeholders of the University, including teachers, officers, non-teaching staff members, research scholars and students, participated actively in the events organised by the University to celebrate the occasion.

Primary Objectives of the Programme

- To generate awareness among the members of the University about the Constitutional values of our nation.
- To encourage the University community to uphold constitutional duties and values.
- To foster a strong feeling of unity and togetherness among the learners.

Programme Details

Opening

The event commenced with an introduction on the significance of the Constitution Day and by offering collective tribute to the makers of the Indian Constitution, including Babasaheb Ambedkar.

Pledge Taking Ceremony

The pledge was taken collectively through the reading of the Preamble of the Indian Constitution. The collective chanting of the words of the Preamble created an atmosphere of self-belief and resilience in the campus. Through the pledge, the participants reaffirmed their strong commitment towards and faith in the values enshrined in the Constitution.

Cultural Presentation

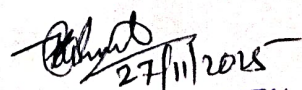

The students of the Department of Vocal Music, together with the students of the Department of Instrumental Music, presented a patriotic song as a part of the celebration. Their presentation added emotional vibrancy to the observance.

Closing

The programme concluded with the collective singing of the National Anthem of India.

Conclusion

The celebration of the Constitution Day was thus conducted in a disciplined, participatory, emotional and impactful manner. All the activities were executed successfully with active involvement of all the stakeholders. The University is committed to execute all such initiatives that promise to inculcate patriotism and togetherness among all the members of the University.

27/11/2025
(UJJWOL KUMAR BASUMATA)
Registrar (Acting)
RABINDRA BHARATI UNIVERSITY
56A, B. T. Road, Kolkata-700 050