MODERN HISTORICAL STUDIES

(A Refereed Journal of the Department of History, Rabindra Bharati University, 56A, B.T. Road, Kolkata-700050, ISSN 0972-6756)

Editor: HEAD, Department of History, Rabindra Bharati University, Kolkata

STYLE GUIDE FOR CONTRIBUTORS

1. Manuscripts and editorial correspondence should be addressed: HEAD, Department of History, 56A, B.T. Road, Rabindra Bharati University, Kolkata-700050
2. All articles must be printed on one side of A4 paper with margins on all sides and double-spaced throughout (i.e., including quotations, notes, references and any other matter). The media should be PC-compatible and the text should be in MS Word. Please provide a hard copy and a soft copy through email or CD. (Email: mhbrbu@gmail.com)
All articles must include contributors' affiliation(s) and complete postal and e-mail addresses.
3. Follow British spellings, in particular, use 's' in words ending with '-ise' and 'isation'.
4. Diacritical marks may be used in articles on pre modern history. Italicised words can have diacritics as required. For Arabo-Persian vocabulary, please follow F. Steingass, A Comprehensive Persian-English Dictionary. For Dravidian languages, the Madras University Tamil Lexicon or some standard equivalent may be used. For other languages, the system used should be clearly specified early in the article. Where diacritical marks are not used, the word should be spelt phonetically, e.g., bhut and bhoot (unless in a quotation, where the original spelling should be used).
5. Please provide complete references cited in the article, including in any tables, graphs and maps, taking care to distinguish primary materials and official publications from secondary references.
(A) In listing primary materials, please mention the name of the archives, location, including the town and, if necessary, the country, and the major series used. In case of materials in a private collection, the name and location of the collection should be mentioned. Where recorded oral materials stored in audio archives are used, the location of the recordings should be specified. Please retain the original names of archives but also translate them into English, for example, Rigsarkivet (National Archives). Names of archives and major series should be accompanied by the abbreviations used to refer to them in the notes: e.g., Tamil Nadu State Archives (TNSA) or Board of Revenue Proceedings (BRP). In reference to primary materials produced by authors with Arabic or Persian names, alphabetize according to author, but do not reconfigure their names by placing 'last names' first.

(B) Secondary References should be given in the following style:

❖ Books:

B. Masters, The Origins of Western Economic Dominance in the Middle East. Mercantilism and the Islamic Economy in Aleppo, 1600-1750. New York, 1988.

(Note: Publishers' names are not to be cited. If a book is published simultaneously at different places, one or at most two of them may be cited.)

❖ Edited Volumes:

C.W. Troll, ed., Muslim shrines in India: Their Character, History and Significance. Delhi, 1989.

❖ Articles in Journals:

G. Hambly, 'A Note on the Trade in Eunuchs in Mughal Bengal', Journal of the American Oriental Society (hereafter JAOS), Vol. 94 (1), 1974, pp. 125-29.

Articles in Edited Volumes:

P. Gaeffke, 'Alexander and the Bengal Sufis', in Alan W. Entwistle and Francoise Mallison, eds, Studies in South Asian Devotional Literature, Research Papers, 1988-1991. New Delhi/Paris, 1994, pp. 27884.

6. Notes should be consecutively numbered and presented at the end of the paper, not at the foot of each page. In the notes, books, articles, theses and official publications should be referred to in abbreviated form (i.e., using short titles), with the precise page reference if applicable. Short titles should be capable of standing alone and similar titles by an individual author should be clearly distinguished. An acknowledgement or statement about the background of the article, if any, will be set as an unnumbered footnote, before the other footnotes. Do not distinguish between Primary and Secondary references; they must all be included in one alphabetical list.
