

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Journal of Education: Rabindra Bharati University (JERBU) is refereed print journal and is designed to publish theoretical papers, review papers and research articles on interdisciplinary cross-currents in the field of Education. The Journal encourages interpretative criticism and fresh insights into new and established paradigms and seeks to generate a serious debate on different academic issues related to Education. We follow a strict Peer reviewing of the submitted works, which we promise to conceal always the identity of both the reviewers and the author from each other.

◇ Format of the articles:

Authors are requested to follow the APA style strictly while preparing the articles. Authors are also requested to include the following in the format of their articles:

1. Full title with subtitle, if any. Times New Roman font, size 14, bold (not all capital letters)
2. Name and affiliation of the author/s
3. An abstract of the article of about 100-120 words and Keywords
4. Authors should note that the main body of the text should be prepared in such a way that no formatting is needed afterwards. Heading, sub headings and illustrations should be well incorporated within the main body of the article. Times New Roman font, size 12 and justified.
5. There is no word-limit for articles. But ideally those should be around 3500 words inclusive of Works Cited.
6. All portions of the articles should be single-line spaced.
7. Author should be careful regarding grammatical and typographical errors.
8. All essays submitted must be in English for review. Quotations in languages other than English must be accompanied by translations.

Do not decorate your submission with lines, borders, special characters etc., which may lead to rejection .
